Knock-in Event

A Knock-in Event occurs when the value of at least one Underlying touches or falls below the Knock-in Level during the Knock-in Level Observation Period.

Knock-in Level Observation Period

From Initial Fixing Date until Final Fixing Date (continuous observation)

Coupon

The periodic Coupon Payment of 2.765% depends on the level of the Underlyings on the respective Coupon Observation Date:

- If the closing prices of all Underlyings on the respective Coupon Observation Date are above the Coupon Level, a Coupon of 2.765% will be paid. Unpaid Coupons may be recovered thanks to the Memory function. The amount of the Coupon Payment is calculated according to the following formula:

$$Coupon_t = t * Coupon - \sum_{k=0}^{t-1} Coupon_k$$

where

$Coupon_t = 2.765\%$

$Coupon_k =$ Coupons paid on earlier Coupon Dates

If the closing price of at least one Underlying on the respective Observation Date is at or below the Coupon Level, no Coupon will be paid.

Entitlement to coupon payment The entitlement to the coupon arises from the ownership of the product, which is determined by the applicable provisions of the respective Clearing Agent and generally corresponds to holding the product on the banking business day ("Record-Date") prior to the respective coupon date. The "Coupon Ex-Date" refers to the first trading day on which the product is traded ex-interest; it is usually set two banking business days before the coupon date. Investors must therefore have purchased (or not sold) the product no later than one banking business day before the respective Coupon Ex-Date in order to be entitled to the coupon.

Coupon Calculation Method 30/360

Memory function The Memory function offers the possibility of catching up on unpaid Coupon payments. If the Coupon payment conditions are met on a subsequent Coupon Observation Date, all Coupon payments from previous Coupon payment dates that have not yet been paid will be paid to the investor in addition to the Coupon payment on the respective Coupon payment date.

Redemption Method

Early Redemption

The Early Redemption depends on the value of the Underlyings on the respective Observation Date.

- If the closing price of all Underlyings on the Observation Date is at or above the Call Level, the product will be redeemed early at Denomination.
- If the closing price of at least one Underlying on the Observation Date is below the Call Level, the product continues.

If no Early Redemption event has occurred, the following redemption scenarios are possible.

Redemption at maturity

If no Knock-in Event occurs, the product is redeemed at Denomination.

If a Knock-in Event occurs and if the Final Fixing Value of all Underlyings is at or above its Cap Level, the investor receives a cash redemption in the amount of the Denomination.

If a Knock-in Event occurs and if the Final Fixing Value of at least one Underlying is below its Cap Level, a physical delivery of the worst performing Underlying takes place (between Initial Fixing Date and Final Fixing Date). The number of Underlyings per Denomination is defined in Ratio (fractions will be paid in cash, no cumulation).

Key elements of the product	A ZKB Autocallable Barrier Reverse Convertible Worst of with Conditional Coupon and Memory function is an investment instrument that can be redeemed early on defined dates depending on the performance of the Underlyings. Depending on the Underlyings' performance, the product pays out coupons on defined dates during the term. Unpaid coupons can be obtained at later coupon dates thanks to the Memory function. This product is a combined investment instrument that essentially consists of a fixed income security and the sale of a down-and-in put option. This allows the investor to benefit from the current volatility of the Underlyings. An above-average return is achieved when prices fall slightly, stagnate or rise slightly. If no Knock-in Event occurs, the investor receives a cash redemption in the amount of the Denomination. The redemption scenario above neglects Early redemption. The Coupons paid during the lifetime of the product are not considered in the performance calculation at maturity. The table above only shows the last Coupon.

If a Knock-in Event occurs, the performance of the product is always given by the Coupons paid out during the term. If a Knock-in Event occurs and if the Final Fixing Value of at least one Underlying is below the Cap Level, the investor will receive a physical delivery of a number of Underlyings as defined in Ratio of the Underlying having the largest negative performance. Therefore, the investor may suffer a partial or total loss. The acquisition price of the delivered Underlyings is 100.00% of the Initial Fixing Value (Cap Level). This negative performance is reduced by any Coupons paid out during the term.

The table above is valid at maturity only and is by no means meant as a price indication for the present product throughout its lifetime. Additional risk factors may have a significant impact on the value of the product during the term. The price quoted on the secondary market can therefore deviate substantially from the above table. For this table it was assumed, that ENI SPA was the worst performing Underlying. This selection is just a representative example of the possible alternatives. Currency risks between the Underlyings and the Product are not considered in the table.

3. Material Risks for Investors

Issuer Risk

Obligations under these products constitute direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer and rank pari passu with other direct, unconditional and unsecured obligations of the Issuer. The value of the product not only depends on the performance of the Underlying and other developments in the financial markets, but also on the solvency of the Issuer, which may change during the term of this product.

Specific product risks

Structured products are complex financial instruments, which entail considerable risks and, accordingly, are only suitable for investors who have the requisite knowledge and experience and understand thoroughly the risks connected with an investment in these structured products and are capable of bearing the economic risks. The loss potential of an investment in ZKB Autocallable Barrier Reverse Convertible Worst of with Conditional Coupon and Memory function in the case of a title delivery is limited to the difference between the purchase price of the product and the cumulative value of the number of Underlyings as defined in Ratio. The Coupon, which is paid out depending on the performance of the Underlyings, reduces the loss of the product compared to a direct investment in the worst performing Underlying. The product is denominated in EUR. If the investor's reference currency differs from the EUR, the investor bears the risk between the EUR and his reference currency.

4. Additional Terms

value of the products prior to the occurrence of the extraordinary event.
